SÖRVE - 50 AASTAT JA ENAMGI VEEL

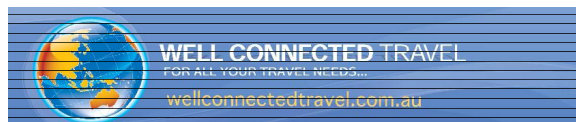

Sörve Laager is the annual children's summer camp organised by the Sydney Estonian Children's Parent and Friends Association – Sörve Söbrad. In 2012 the camp will run from 6th to 13th January. It is a fun filled week for children, parents and friends of Estonian background, located at the NSW Sport and Recreation facility at Point Wolstoncroft on Lake Macquarie NSW Australia.

All school age children are enrolled during the week as part of the camp and activities include a wide range of sport and cultural activities such as, volleyball, ropes, abseiling, swimming, canoeing, rock climbing, singing, camp fires, hikes, theme nights, theme games, folk dancing and craft as well as others.

Parent activities are organized through the Adult Liaison Officer for inclusion in activities such as amongst other things wine tasting and golf day as well as use of the sport and recreation facilities such as giant swing, ropes, abseiling, canoeing and archery (all subject to additional price and availability where applicable).

Everyone who has been to Sörve has left with fond memories and lifelong friendships.

Modern private facilities are available for all families to attend including families with special needs. Children who are not in year 3 at school or are under 8 years old require parental attendance and supervision. Please peruse the final Sörve Sosin (newsletter from 2011 camp) attached and visit the Sörve website www.sorve.org.au or follow us on Facebook search for Sorve Family for more information.
