

Best Western Unit Travel Card

The pre-paid travel card can be purchased for personal or business use and can be used in over 4,000 Best Western Hotels worldwide. The Best Western Travel card is an ideal gift and an effective way to manage travel costs.

Best Western properties are rated in UNITS. The unit value is based on the standard of the property, location, amenities & other benefits that the hotel /motel has to offer. The system is similar to but not the same as a 'star rating'.

Australian participating Best Western properties are rated between 3 & 5 units for each room per night. European participating Best Western properties are rated between 2 & 9 units for each room per night . Best Western properties in North, Central & South America, Africa, Asia & the South Pacific also participate.

Normally each unit is priced at AUD$39.00, however, we are offering a 33.33% special discount – which is limited to purchases over a 34 day period from 15 August 2011 – until 17 September 2011. To proceed with this offer, please visit our promotion site: www.sharetheluv.com.au.

The pre-paid Best Western Travel Card is sold in multiples of the designated unit value.
